}

<!-- "I find great value in my multidisciplinary approach. I enjoy exploring different artistic techniques, ranging from traditional to digital, as it allows me to bring a diverse perspective to my work. This versatility lets me adapt to various project demands, ensuring that each one receives a thoughtful and balanced treatment. By embracing a range of design disciplines, I hope to contribute designs that resonate with audiences, bridging the gap between creativity and practicality". -->

Additional Interests {

3D animation;

Animated short film creation;

Videogame concept art;

Apps UI design;

Website/App programming;

}

<!-- "I love the world of possibilities 3D design offers, as it hold the potential to bring ideas to life in unique ways. Crafting animated short films appeals to me as a means to weave compelling narratives through visuals. Videogame concept art, on the other hand, sparks my curiosity about shaping immersive virtual worlds. Meanwhile, delving into app UI design seems like an opportunity to harmonize beauty and function, creating intuitive user experiences". -->
