<!-- "I find great value in my multidisciplinary approach. I enjoy exploring different artistic techniques, ranging from traditional to digital, as it allows me to bring a diverse perspective to my work. This versatility lets me adapt to various project demands, ensuring that each one receives a thoughtful and balanced treatment. By embracing a range of design disciplines, I hope to contribute designs that resonate with audiences, bridging the gap between creativity and practicality". -->

.Additional Interests {
    3D animation;
